2022 CIVIL SERVICE WEEK CELEBRATION

The 2021 Annual Civil Service Week celebration commenced on Friday 8th July, 2022. The theme for this celebration was “Digitalization in the civil service of Ghana: An agenda for improved productivity and service delivery”.

A line up of activities to mark the celebration included, Football Tournament, Clean-up Exercise, Press Launch, Christian and Muslim Thanksgiving, Public Lecture, Policy Fair/Exhibition and Tourism day, Men’s cooking competition and to crown it all was the Civil Service Awards Ceremony.

The Ministry with support from selected Divisions and Units took active part in the activities.

2021 CIVIL SERVICE WEEK FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT

David Kotey from the ICT Unit assembled a team of gallant staff to represent the Ministry at the Football Tournament. The Tournament was to kick-start the 2021 Civil Service Week Celebration. All MDAs presented football teams to battle it out for the 2021 best Football team.

The Ministry's first match was against a wobbly Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Regional Integration (MFARI) Team on Friday, 8th July 2022. After the full 30minutes, team Finance beat them by 3:1 to send them parking and that set the stage for our next match with the Ministry of Justice and Attorney General's Department on Tuesday 12th July 2022.

After a pulsating 40 minutes, the match ended in a goalless draw leading to penalties. Team Ministry of Justice eliminated Team Ministry of Finance 2:0 on penalties. Hopefully our trophy cabinet which is under construction will be ready next year to keep the trophy because we shall bring it HOME.

MEN'S COOKING COMPETITION

To show the cooking prowess of men in the Civil and Local Government Staff Association of Ghana (CLOGSAG), the organizers of this year's event paired some Ministries to cook specific dishes after balloting.

Ministry of Finance joined forces with the Ministry of Employment and Labour Relations to cook Fante Fante with Banku and Plain rice.

Chefs from team MoF were our very own Emmanuel Boakye Ansah, Jones Obeng, Daniel Darkwa and Mubarak Wumbei Salifu. After the competition, it came out from the organisers that, the food prepared by team Mo and team MELR topped all the other Ministries.

MINISTRY OF FINANCE

Review of 2022 Mid-Year Presentation.

On the authority of His Excellency, President Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo Addo, the Minister for Finance (Hon. Ken Ofori-Atta) presented the Mid-Year Fiscal Policy Review of the Budget Statement and Economic Policy of the Government of Ghana for the 2022 Financial Year.

The presentation was in fulfilment of Section 28 of the Public Financial Management Act, 2016 (PFM Act 921) and Regulation 24 of the Public Financial Management Regulations (L.I. 2378)

Find excerpts from the statement below

- Rapid Unforeseen challenges on both the local and foreign fronts that had led to severe pressures on the Cedi, which caused the currency to depreciate significantly.
- Russia invaded Ukraine, a situation that worsened the already weakened global supply chains, exacerbated by high financing conditions, the surging food, fertiliser, financing, building materials and fuel prices -that manifested in soaring inflation domestically.
- Renewed Partnership with the idea to return to IMF
- A Promising Journey Ahead delved into Government's resolve to continue to provide the necessary leadership to turn the economy around within two and half years. To do this, Government will proceed with great caution, thoughtfulness, creativity and grit, as the old adage says, we shall "hasten slowly". The development of an Enhanced Domestic Programme through our engagement with the IMF is to complement the GhanaCARES "Obaatan pa" programme to return us to a path of macroeconomic stability, debt sustainability, robust growth and a Ghana Beyond Aid.
